- The diversity and Inclusion Initiatives

Internal Initiatives to foster Greater Diversity and Inclusion at CBC/Radio-Canada include :

* Developing Emerging Leaders Program

This 10-month Program uses in-class Theory, experiential Learning, exposure to Senior Leaders, mentoring, assignments and shadowing to equip Diverse Employees with Insights, Tools and Strategies to skillfully take their Careers to the Next Level.

* Unconscious Bias Training

All of the Senior Leaders learn Unconscious Bias and Inclusive Leadership. That Awareness fosters a Culture of Inclusiveness""one of their Core Values. Similar Training will be provided to Employees across the Organization.

* Employee Resource Groups (ERGs)

ERGs bring together Employees who share Common Backgrounds and Experiences, and provide Mutual Support and a greater Sense of Belonging. We have, for example, ERGs for Women in Technology and Employees with Physical or Mental Disabilities and their Allies.

* Indigenous Internships

One-year paid Internships of Indigenous Reporters who join our Regional and Network Newsrooms. In 2018, the Program expanded beyond News to welcome Indigenous Interns in TV Production. The Goal is to establish a Long-Term Professional Relationship between our Interns and CBC/Radio-Canada.

- The progress so far. Most notably, between 2014 and 2018 :

* The Diversity of their new External hires increased to 27.8% (Q4 2017-2018), surpassing their Strategy 2020 Target of 23.2%.
